

COUNTRYSIDE P.U.D.
951 VILLAGE TRAIL
PORT ORANGE, FL 32127

AN OVERVIEW
OF
ARTICLES II & III, GENERAL COVENANTS & RESTRICTIONS

The following is intended to be a GUIDE to the Countryside Covenants and Restrictions (CC&R's) for new residents to our community and as a reminder for the rest of the homeowners. Every property owner in the community has an obligation to his neighbor to know and follow the rules that set us apart and keep Countryside a desirable and valuable place to live. Each Sub-Division within the Countryside P.U.D. has its own set of rules which may or may not be more restrictive than those of the P.U.D.

The President of your association and/or the Countryside Property Manager at the Clubhouse can assist you in applying our rules.

This overview is an index to, not a substitute for, the CC&R's. Please take the time to become familiar with the documents as they apply to the P.U.D.

PROPERTY USE/APPEARANCE

All changes and/or additions to the dwelling and landscaping must be reviewed by the President of your Association and the Countryside Architectural Review Committee (RARC) prior to implementation. (Art. II, Sec 2.1) Request approval from the RARC before you add, change, paint or plant on the exterior of your property.

1. It is the obligation of each owner to maintain the premises and the structures thereon in a manner such as not to compromise the desirability and value of the adjacent property and the community at large. (Sec. 3.38)
